Praying with the Pope in August 2024

For political leaders

Let us pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and the common good, taking care of those who have lost their jobs and giving priority to the poor.

Moses gave them bread from heaven to eat

FIRE at ST Joseph's

The Insurance Assessors have been to visit St Joseph's. Happily the chapel is structurally sound, but we can't use it just yet. There is no power and no water in the building, but once these are restored, we need to get the lift checked out. So for the next few weeks the 9.30am Mass will be in St Peter's. We are hoping to be back in the chapel as soon as possible.

This Sunday

Is the 18th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the Gospel Jesus tells his followers that they must eat the bread of life so that they will never be hungry again.

The Vigil Mass

For the final time we are welcoming about 100 of the Stonyhurst Summer School students who will be attending the Vigil Mass on Saturday.

The 9.30 morning Mass

Will once again be in St Peter's (see above). We are hoping to be back in the chapel soon

Summer Holidays

All of our pupils are enjoying their summer break. We pray for them that they use their time well. While our boarders are away, we will continue to celebrate benediction at 5.15pm on a Saturday afternoon and the 11am Mass on a Sunday.

Day by Day and Messenger Magazine

Please help yourself to the August edition from the back of the church

Coffee Stop

Takes place on Thursday at 1.30pm in the Bowling Green pavilion. All welcome.

Next Sunday

Is the 19th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the gospel Jesus teaches that he is the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Year B Interlude

We are currently in Year B in the liturgical cycle. This means that most Sundays we hear from the gospel of Mark. However, for the next few weeks we will be hearing from John as we listen to the bread of life discourse.

Missio Red Boxes

If you have a Missio Red Box at home, please bring it back to church this week, so that it can be counted. Currently, Lucy Harrison is the Missio representative for the parish, but she is looking for someone to assist her.

New Sunday Missal

The translation that we use for the readings at Mass is changing in November. A new Sunday missal with the correct translation is available from Redemptorist Publication. You can order your own copy directly, but Cathy Poloczek is happy to order one for you. Cost is £20.

Date for your diary

As part of their Every Step campaign, Caritas is holding a sponsored walk around Whalley on Sunday 14th September. Check out their website for more details.

St Ignatius day Thank You

Thanks to those who helped to make our St Ignatius day celebrations such a success. Our guests all went away very happy. There are some left over orders of service and prayer cards at the back of the church. Please help yourself.

The feast of the Transfiguration

Is celebrated on Tuesday. We remember how Jesus was transfigured in the presence of his disciples, his clothes becoming gleaming white. Tuesday is also the 80th Anniversary of the dropping of the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima. The Jesuit novice master witnessed the event from his window and immediately gathered the Jesuit novices to go to the aid of the stricken victims. Luckily the Jesuit novice master was also a doctor. His name was Pedro Arrupe and he later became the General of the Society of Jesus.
