Happy Birthday to Our Lady
on Thursday

This Sunday

Is the 23rd Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the gospel Jesus gives two illustrations about how we can plan for the future.

Benediction and the 11am Mass

This is the last time when the boarders will not be joining us for Benediction and Mass.

Hymn Books

During August we have been using the Celebration Hymnal at the Vigil Mass. Next week, when the college students have returned, we shall be back to the Cantionale. Any comments on the Celebration Hymnal welcome.

Visiting Priest

Fr Vincent Vaz will be with us for a short while and will be assisting in the parish.

New School Year

The new school year begins on Wednesday for St Joseph's and SMH. The college will have a staggered start. On Monday and Tuesday there will be sessions for the staff to prepare for the new academic year.

Coffee Stop

Takes place on Thursday from 1.30pm at the Bowling Green club. The next Coffee Stop, on Thursday 22nd September, will be a fund-raiser on behalf of McMillan nurses. Make a note in your diary.

Next Sunday

Is the 24th Sunday of Ordinary Time. The gospel is taken from the 15th Chapter of Luke's gospel where Jesus illustrates how the Father forgives.

Benediction and the 11am Mass

Next Sunday the boarders are back and will be attending Benediction on Saturday evening and the 11am Mass on Sunday morning.

Ukrainian Refugees

Congratulations to the three families in the village who are hosting refugees from Ukraine. These have now arrived. One host said "it's a joy to be able to bring some peace and stability to these families whose male loved ones are still in Ukraine supporting the war effort."

Safari Supper

Takes place in and around Hurst Green on 17th September. You can be a participant and enjoy a main course and a sweet with two different hosts, or you can host and receive 6 to 10 people at your home. Please phone Agnes for more details on: 07792 469895.

St Ignatius day Celebrations

On the feast of St Ignatius we hosted pilgrims from the Jesuit parishes in Liverpool, Manchester and Preston. It was a very convivial occasion. Below you can see the participants after Benediction in St Peter's.
