Praying with the Pope in November 2022
For children who suffer:

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

We pray for the Holy Souls in November

This Sunday

Is the 32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the gospel Jesus explains to us what will happen in the resurrection of the dead.

Fr Tim Away

Fr Tim returns this weekend. Thank you Fr Adrian for filling in for him.

November dead list

As is customary, there will be a book at the back of the church where we can remember our deceased family and friends. These will be remembered at each Mass during the month of November.

Half term break

Stonyhurst and SMH return to classes on Monday. Next weekend they will be joining us for benediction.

Next Sunday

Is the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time. Jesus encourages us to stand firm, no matter what might happen in the future.

Armistice day

Friday is the 11th November and is the anniversary of the end of World War I. It is the day on which we traditionally pray for those killed in battle. Many people like to observe a minute's silence at 11am.

Remembrance Sunday

Next Sunday is also Remembrance Sunday. This means that on Sunday morning the 9.30am Mass will be celebrated in St Peter's. The college boarders will attend this Mass. There is no Mass at 11am, instead we all gather at 10.45am in the Memorial Hall car park for our annual act of remembrance.

Confirmation

The third and final meeting will be on Tuesday at 6pm in the parish rooms in Clitheroe. Please pray for our candidates.

Safari Supper

Takes place next Saturday. Contact Agnes Bland for more details on 07792 469895.

What is the Christian significance of Remembrance Sunday?

"Do this in memory of me". These words of Christ at the Last Supper were more than a simple command to commemorate. They are a call to awakening that in this life this important historical figure, Jesus of Nazareth, has left his mark on the world. As we come to the altar to follow this command the effects of that first Good Friday are not only called to mind, but the words have a direct impact on our lives.

Our memory forms us, it has an impact on who we are as individuals and as a society. The Early Church Fathers spoke of memory as being 'a power of the soul'; the great philosopher, Aristotle referred to it as being the 'scribe of the soul', such is its effect. Memory informs, rightly or wrongly, and impacts our decision making and therefore our future. It also keeps the events of the past effective in our lives.

The greatest and only offering, to redeem both living and dead, has already been made by Christ, and if we want to celebrate our loving connection on both sides of the veil, we need only now to make gifts for and to the living.

Next Sunday we especially 'remember' those who have given their lives through war in service of our country. They have left home and family often to foreign lands in the search of justice, freedom and peace; the effects of which we feel in our society today. The world could have been a very different place for us without their sacrifice, which cannot and should not be forgotten.

The memories we recall on Remembrance Sunday should spur us forward in the search for true harmony and peace throughout the world.
