Praying with the Pope in July 2019

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word..

Today

After a succession of wonderful feasts that we have been able to celebrate during the month of June, we return to Ordinary Time. From now until November we shall be hearing the Gospel of Luke on Sundays. Today we hear Jesus sending out the 72 to preach with his authority.

Crossroads Mass

The 9.30am Mass today is the "Crossroads" Mass where we say goodbye to the St Joseph's pupils who are going on to Secondary School.

Catenian Mass

The Accrington Circle of the Catenians will be coming to the 11am Mass in St Peters, but parishioners are most welcome to join them.

31 days of St Ignatius

The British Jesuits invite you to take part in the 31 days of St Ignatius. If you sign up, a thought will be delivered to your inbox for every day during the month. Please take a flyer.

Summer Holidays

The pupils from the College and from SMH are now on their summer break. The pupils from St Joseph's still have a couple of weeks to go. Over the holidays there will still be Holy Hour and Benediction on a Saturday afternoon and the 11am Mass on a Sunday morning.

Stonyhurst Children's Holiday

This continues until Wednesday. Please keep the children and their helpers in your prayers.

Next Sunday

Is the 15th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the Gospel we hear Jesus tell the parable of the Good Samaritan, a story unique to Luke's Gospel.

The Collection

The collection last week came to:

Vigil Mass	9.30am	11.00am	Total
£ 151.71	£ 116.50	£ 349.76	£ 617.97

The collection at the Guild Day Mass was £ 123.41
Thank you for your generosity.

Gift Aid

At the Parish AGM it was noted that the figure we were able to claim back in gift aid fell slightly last year. If you are a tax payer and are not already gift-aiding your contributions, please consider doing so. We shall also encourage couples getting married here to gift aid their donation to the church.

St Ignatius Day celebrations

We are hosting the celebrations for St Ignatius day on Wednesday 31st July. Parishioners from Liverpool, Preston and Manchester have been invited. The programme is:

6.00pm and 6.30pm – tour of the museum

(you need to pre book for one of these tours)

7.00pm Mass in St Peter's

After Mass refreshments will be available in Theodore House. I am hoping our parishioners will be on hand to welcome our guests.

Parish Accounts for 2018

A summary of the parish accounts for last year is available at the back of the church. If you have not done so already, please take a copy.

Going into Hospital

If you are going into hospital, you must make it clear that you wish to see the Catholic Chaplain. These days your details are no longer passed on automatically. If you would like to receive the Sacrament of the sick before you go in, this is of course possible. Just contact Fr Tim.

Intentional Disciples

Bishop John Arnold is encouraging us all to become Intentional Disciples: People with a mission and people who know what their mission is.

John Henry Newman put it this way:

"God has created me for some definite purpose. He's committed some work to me he's not committed to another. I have my mission".

Reflecting on today's Gospel, we can ask ourselves: What is my mission? What is my special purpose for which I am created? What does God want me to do?
