Newsletter distribution

As we can now gather for Mass, the newsletter is being delivered only to those households who have requested this. A huge thank you to those who have been delivering the newsletter over the last few months. It has helped us all keep in touch with each other.

Buddies

Over the lockdown many parishioners have been phoning their "buddy" on a daily basis. Some have told me that they will continue to do this. It has been great the way in which our community has been able to offer help and support to those who need it.

Fr Tim's availability

Fr Tim will check the answer machine in the parish office frequently.
