Praying with the Pope in November 2024

For those who have lost a child

Let us pray that all parents who have lost a son or a daughter may find support in their community, and may receive peace of heart from the spirit of consolation.

Yes I am a King
 but my kingdom is not of this world

This Sunday

Is the feast of Christ the King and is the last Sunday of the current liturgical year. In the gospel Pilate asks Jesus if he is the King of the Jews. We all belong to Christ's Kingdom. We will bless the new lectionaries before each Mass.

November dead list

November is the month in which we remember our loved ones who have died. If you wish you can inscribe their names in the book of remembrance that is placed on the altar at every Mass during this month. May they rest in peace.

Salford Diocese Synod

A big thank you to those who came to the meeting last Tuesday to prepare our parish submission for the next stage of the Synod. We focused on how to reach out to our younger parishioners and find ways to engage with them.

Talk on the new lectionary.

We will have a new translation of the readings used at Mass from Sunday 1st December.

Maria Hall will lead a study group on the new Lectionary which is open to anyone from the Deanery to attend. It takes place on Monday at St Mary's Church, Bamber Bridge at 7pm. All welcome.

Coffee Stop with speaker

Takes place on Thursday, where we will be joined by a guest speaker from Age UK, who will be talking about winter fuel support, pension credits, wills and powers of attorney. Bowling Green Pavilion from 1.30pm to 3pm. All welcome

Campion day anticipated

Campion day falls on 1st December. However, as this falls on a Sunday this year, the College will anticipate the feast and celebrate it on Friday. The Champion Day Mass will be in St Peter's and begin at 11.00am. All welcome.

Next Sunday

Is the first Sunday of Advent. We begin a new liturgical year (Year C). The reading today will be taken from the new lectionary. In the gospel Jesus urges us to stay awake at all times, because we do not know when the Son of Man will return.

Food bank

We are now collecting items for the foodbank for Christmas. All the usual items are very welcome, but they would also love any long-life Christmas treats. To ensure items can be collected and distributed, the last date for items to be received at church is Sunday 15th December. Please leave your items in the box at the back of St Peter's or give them to Fr Tim after the 9.30am Mass.
