Last year's palms

If you kept your palm from last year's Palm Sunday, please bring it back to church. Fr Tim will need them to make the Ashes for Ash Wednesday.

The Conversion of St Paul

Is celebrated on 25th January. The feast would be celebrated today, but it has been superseded by the Sunday liturgy. "Saul", as he was known, was a fierce persecutor of the early Christian communities. He was present at the stoning of St Stephen, the first Christian martyr. He was on his way to Damascus when he fell and had a vision of the risen Lord. He then asked to be baptised and assumed the name "Paul". He turned from the church's persecutor to its staunchest defender.

We are grateful that his many letters were collected and preserved. Through them we learn much about the lives of the first believers in Jesus Christ. The letters are full of useful instruction and are still relevant to us today.

Tradition holds that both he and St Peter were martyred in Rome in about the year 65AD.
