Praying with the Pope in August 2024

For political leaders

Let us pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and the common good, taking care of those who have lost their jobs and giving priority to the poor.

FIRE at ST Joseph's

We are hoping that we will be able to use the chapel in St Joseph's for Mass next Sunday. They have to lay some temporary flooring in the entrance hall, but this should be done in the week. However for today the 9.30am Sunday Mass will be in St Peter's.

This Sunday

Is the 21st Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the gospel many people decide to leave Jesus because his teaching is too hard. However, Peter decides to stick with him.

New Day by Day and Messenger magazine

The September issue of these publications are available at the back of the church.

Summer Holidays

All of our pupils are enjoying their summer break. We pray for them that they use their time well. While our boarders are away, we will continue to celebrate benediction at 5.15pm on a Saturday afternoon and the 11am Mass on a Sunday.

Parish Visiting

During the week Fr Tim hopes to visit those who can't get to church on a Sunday. If you know of someone who needs a visit, please let him know.

Next Sunday

Is the 21st Sunday of Ordinary Time. We are back to Mark's Gospel. When Jesus is confronted by the Pharisees, he declares all food clean.

Couples getting married at St Peter's

Please keep in your prayers Matthew Wood and Hollie Drain, and Callum Jones and Jenna Knott. Both couples are being married in St Peter's over this weekend.

Lourdes Pilgrimage

Pilgrims have left on the Stonyhurst Association Pilgrimage to Lourdes. Please keep them in your prayers.

New Sunday Missal

The translation that we use for the readings at Mass is changing in November. A new Sunday missal with the correct translation is available from Redemptorist Publication. You can order your own copy directly, but Cathy Poloczek is happy to order one for you. Cost is £20.

Dates for your diary

As part of their Every Step campaign, Caritas is holding a sponsored walk around Whalley on Sunday 14th September. Check out their website for more details

There will be a Coffee Stop Special on Thursday 26th September to raise funds for MacMillan Cancer Support. 1pm to 3pm in the Memorial Hall. All welcome.

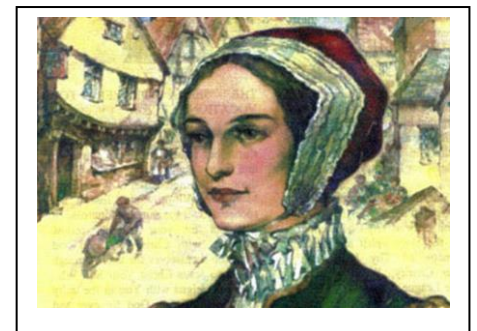

Female martyrs of the reformation

On Friday we celebrate the feast of three women who were martyred for the faith:

St Margaret Clitherow was crushed to death in York in 1586 for refusing to reveal secret hiding places for priests.

St Margaret Ward was executed at Tyburn in 1588 for helping a priest escape from prison.

St Anne Line was executed in 1601 at Tyburn for harbouring priests in her house. She helped the Jesuit John Gerard to escape from the Tower.
