Praying for Vocations to the Priesthood

You will be aware of the need to pray for vocations to the priesthood. The Bishop of a Diocese is 'the Pastor of the people of God'; he is, if you like, the official priest, appointed by the Pope to do the work of the church in a given area. He cannot do this alone as there are, thankfully, too many people to minister to; he needs help, and those who help him in this way are called priests. Today, the Catholic Church in this country finds itself with a decreasing number of priests to help the Bishops. As Pope Francis has said, 'Vocations are born in prayer and only in prayer can they persevere and bear fruit.'

At the back of the Church you will find some fold-up orange pamphlets entitled 'What is God asking of me?' On seven 'pages' you will find a topic relating to vocations:

1 The Bishop 2 Family Life 3 Those Discerning their vocation 4 Seminarians and Deacons 5 Priests 6 Religious and Consecrated Life 7 Missionary Disciples

Each topic has been assigned a day of the week. Each topic is introduced with a brief saying of Pope Francis or a popular saint and then follows a short prayer.

A suggestion: Take a copy of the orange leaflet and say the short prayer for each of the days of the week. In this way, even if you are not called to the priesthood and religious life, your prayers may help and inspire others to do so.

Keep praying these prayers. Who knows? Perhaps the Lord will hear your prayers and help inspire many young men and women to become priests or religious in his service.

A message from the 'Friends of St Joseph's School'.

A very big 'thank you' to everyone who attended our Christmas Fayre last Saturday afternoon – the event was a resounding success with lots of lovely feed-back from school families and members of the wider Hurst Green village community, who all said how much they enjoyed the event.

Including the raffle, we raised a tremendous £1620, which is a fantastic amount for such a small school! This has been a true team effort and we would like to say a special 'thank you' to everyone involved. A big 'thank you' also to those individuals and businesses who donated prizes for our raffle – too many to name here, but their details can be found on the Friends noticeboard in the school foyer. Without this generosity and support, much of our fund-raising would not be possible. Details of raffle winners, together with the winners of our other competitions from the day can be found on the Friends noticeboard at school.
