Praying with the Pope in July 2019

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word..

Look at www.ThePopeVideo.org for more information.

Today

Is the 16th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the Gospel Luke tells the story of the visit of Jesus to the house of Martha and Mary in Bethany. Prayer is important as well as action.

Fr Tim Away

Fr Tim will be away from the parish to make his retreat from this Monday to Tuesday 30th July. During this time the weekday Masses will be replaced by communion services. Fr Paul Fletcher, the superior of the Jesuit Community in Preston, will celebrate the weekend Masses next weekend. Fr Paul is profoundly deaf, so he “signs” the Mass. However, he can lip read in three languages. I’m sure you will make him feel welcome.

Summer Holidays

All of our pupils from the College, from SMH and from St Joseph’s are now on their summer break. We keep them in our prayers.

Next Sunday

Is the 17th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the Gospel Jesus teaches us the power of prayer.

As Fr Tim is away next weekend, there will be no Holy Hour or Benediction.

The Collection

The collection last week came to:

Vigil Mass	9.30am	11.00am	Total
£ 177.26	£ 78.42	£ 60.20	£ 315.88

Some people prefer to make their contribution to church funds by standing order. These averaged out £100 per week during the month of June.

Thank you for your generosity.

Ecumenical Worship

An Ecumenical Service takes place at 11am on Wednesday 31st July at St Joseph’s primary school. The service will be followed by lunch.

St Ignatius Day celebrations

We are hosting the celebrations for St Ignatius day on Wednesday 31st July. Parishioners from Liverpool, Preston and Manchester have been invited. The programme is:

7.00pm Mass in St Peter’s

After Mass refreshments will be available in Theodore House. I am hoping our parishioners will be on hand to welcome our guests.

Ecumenical Bar-B-Que

Takes place on the village green on Sunday 4th August at 11am. Stephen Burrows from the Laudate Si project in Salford will be the keynote speaker. The worship will be followed by a Bar-B-Que on the green. All welcome.

Red Box Collection:

Thank you to everyone who donates to Missio/APF, either by standing order or via the Red Boxes. The recent collection from Red Boxes came to £382.37, which has now been paid into the account of APF Mill Hill Missionaries.

Please do not put foreign coins in the Red Boxes as they break the counting machine.

Please help yourself to a Missio magazine from the back of Church. Thanks for your generosity.

Deanery Walk

Thanks to everybody who attended the Midsummer Walk for our Deanery and for those who helped with planning it. The walk began with the Hope in the Future Prayer in front of the newly restored statue of Our Lady outside Stonyhurst College. It continued around the Tolkien Trail (all 6 miles) and included a picnic lunch beside the River Hodder. Walkers continued for as long as they wished and various opt-outs were offered. It was wonderful to get together in glorious and historic countryside, to strengthen existing friendships and to make new ones. Our Deanery stretches as far north as Dunsop Bridge, as far west as Lostock Hall, as far east as Clitheroe and as far south as Darwen. Forty-six people from eleven different parishes joined the walk. The next Deanery event will be a bar-b-que at Lee House in September. Watch this space.

Going into Hospital

If you are going into hospital, you must make it clear to the nurse that you wish to see the Catholic Chaplain; your details are no longer passed on automatically.
